Help ease financial worries

There's no getting around it. Accidents do happen. You could hurt yourself playing tennis. Or your five-year-old could fall on the playground and need emergency care. From bumps and bruises to broken bones, the costs can add up quickly.

Having accident treatment insurance can help protect you from the high cost of medical care. Benefits are paid directly to you or to someone you select. We make it easy to choose the option that is right for you, your spouse and your dependent children (under age 26).

Each year trauma accounts for 41 million emergency department visits and 2.3 million hospital admissions across the nation.¹

For a chip fracture, we will pay 25% of the nonsurgical benefit amount for the bone involved.

For a fracture and a dislocation in the same accident, we will pay for both. But we will pay no more than 150% of the benefit amount for the bone or dislocation involved, which ever has the highest benefit amount.

If more than 90 days have passed between the periods of confinement, we will treat the later confinement as a new confinement.

We will pay both the hospital confinement benefit and the hospital ICU confinement benefit concurrently. But only for the first 15 days of a period of confinement in a hospital ICU. After that time only the hospital confinement benefit will be paid. Limited to 15 days per covered accident.

We will also pay this benefit amount for one immediate family member to go with a covered child. The child must need special treatment and confinement in a non-local hospital.

Travel excludes air or ground/water ambulance. It is limited to three round trips per person or immediate family member (only if with a covered child), per calendar year.
