Hospital costs can be expensive. Help protect yourself and your family.

It's no secret that hospital visits can be expensive. However, there are other hospital expenses that can prove costly, as well. That's why having a supplemental hospital indemnity insurance policy could be a smart financial decision – one that provides additional protection for you and your loved ones.

How your policy works

- › You and/or your covered spouse/ domestic partner, and child(ren) receive benefit payments – regardless of other insurance you may have – whenever you or your covered family member are admitted to a hospital or experience a covered, hospital-related event resulting from a covered injury or illness.
- › Benefits are paid directly to you.³ You can use your benefits for anything you want, including everyday expenses.
- › This is a fixed-benefit policy, meaning the policy will pay the specific amount you preselected, regardless of the amount charged by providers.
- › There is no deductible.
- › Benefits can help you cover out-of-pocket medical expenses.

1. The term hospital does not include convalescent homes, convalescent rest, or nursing facilities, or facilities primarily for the aged, drug and alcohol rehabilitation, and those primarily affording custodial or educational care.

2. Subject to the company's right to increase premiums on a class basis.

3. Benefits may be paid directly to the hospital upon assignment.

Being in a hospital is a challenging period – when recovery is a major concern. It’s definitely not the time to be stressed about medical costs.

Prepare now. Get payments when you need them.

Major health insurance policies cover many medical costs, but they may not meet all of your expenses. For example, policies may include a deductible which must be met before the policy pays 100% of your benefits. Deductible amounts vary from policy to policy. However, they have one thing in common: They may put a dent in your household budget.

A Flexible Choice Hospital Indemnity Insurance policy, insured by Loyal American Life Insurance Company, can help you cover the amount of your out-of-pocket expenses. Your policy can also help with household expenses while you’re hospitalized, such as pet-sitting, lawn care and more.⁴

Tom discovered the advantages of a hospital indemnity insurance policy.⁵

Tom is 66 and lives in Maine. Last winter, Tom caught pneumonia and spent four nights in the hospital. Even though Tom has a Medicare Advantage plan, his out-of-pocket expenses for the hospitalization cost him roughly $1,600.

Fortunately Tom had purchased a Hospital Indemnity Insurance Senior Choice policy the previous summer. The policy paid him $1,550 for his four-night hospital stay, helping to cover his out-of-pocket costs.

Here’s how it worked out for Tom
Tom’s out-of-pocket expenses	$1,600
Benefit amount from Tom’s Senior Choice policy
Hospital Admission Benefit	$750
Hospital Confinement Benefit	$200 x 4 days
Total amount paid to Tom	$1,550

4. Benefits received in excess of medical expenses may be considered taxable income. Consult your tax advisor.

5. Example used for illustrative purposes only. These are examples only and actual coverage and benefit amounts will vary by policy design. Coverage is subject to all terms and conditions as specified in the policy.

Covered benefits

If you're faced with covered hospital-related expenses, we're here to help. The following benefits may be included in your policy. Please refer to the chart on page six of this brochure for coverage options, including benefit amounts payable. You have the opportunity to choose the benefits you want at rates that fit your budget.

Hospital Admission

You'll receive a benefit payment when you're admitted as an inpatient in a hospital due to a covered illness or injury. This hospital admission must occur within 90 days of the covered accident and the admission must be at the direction and under the treatment of a physician. Benefit payments are limited to one admission per insured person per calendar year, whether for the same or different covered illness or injury. This benefit is not payable for hospital admission of a newborn child following birth unless the child suffers a covered illness or covered injury.

Ambulance Transportation

Paid when a licensed professional ambulance company transports any insured person by air, ground or water to a hospital – or between medical facilities where treatment is received for a covered illness or injury. Ground/water transportation, due to an injury, must occur within 90 days of the covered accident. Air ambulance transportation, due to an injury, must occur within 72 hours of the covered accident. Limited to one payment per insured person per illness or injury with a combined maximum of two payments per calendar year.

Hospital Confinement

A daily benefit will be paid when you're confined in a hospital as an inpatient due to a covered illness or injury. Your hospital confinement must begin within 90 days of the covered accident and must be provided at the direction and under the treatment of a physician. If the insured person returns to the hospital within 90 days for the same or related illness or injury, we will count it as the same hospital confinement. Benefit payments are limited to a six- or 10-day benefit period and a maximum of four hospital confinements per insured person per calendar year. This benefit is not payable for hospital confinement of a newborn child following birth unless the child suffers a covered illness or covered injury.

Emergency Room Treatment

When you receive emergency treatment in an emergency room due to a covered illness or injury, we'll pay the benefit amount. The treatment must be provided at the direction of a physician or licensed health care professional who is under the supervision of a physician, within 72 hours of covered accident. Limited to a maximum of two payments per insured person per calendar year.

Observation Room

This benefit is paid when you receive treatment for a covered illness or injury in a hospital observation room on a non-inpatient basis and a charge is incurred. (The requirement that a person be charged for room and board does not apply to observation in a Veteran's Administration hospital or federal government hospital.) The observation, due to a covered injury, must occur within 90 days of the covered accident and the observation must be at the direction and under the treatment of a physician.

Benefit is limited to a maximum of two payments per calendar year per insured person. This benefit is not payable if a benefit is payable under the Hospital Confinement Benefit and/or the Emergency Room Treatment Benefit for the same day, same period or same treatment.

Skilled Nursing Facility

You'll receive a benefit payment if you're confined to a skilled nursing facility for medical treatment and rehabilitation due to a covered injury or illness. The benefit will be paid for each day of skilled nursing facility care starting on the 21st day of confinement.

The skilled nursing facility care must be at the direction and under the treatment of a physician or licensed health care professional, and begin within 30 days following a related hospital confinement for three consecutive days or more for which benefits were paid. When payment is provided for the Hospital Confinement Benefit, the Skilled Nursing Facility Benefit will not be payable for the same day.

Payments are limited to 80 days per insured person per calendar year.

What option is right for you?

There are many factors in choosing the right option, including costs, benefits provided and amounts that the benefits will pay. Your selections are based on what would make you feel most comfortable in terms of coverage and cost. Our Senior Choice policy is designed for those age 50 through 85 and is available in three different options.

Choose the payment amounts that work for you.

Once you've chosen an option (based on the amount of benefits you'd prefer), you can decide on the amount of coverage you would like. As the charts below illustrate, certain benefits offer a range of possible payments. For example, for hospital confinement, you can choose benefit payments that range from $100 to $450 a day.

A licensed insurance agent can work with you to help you determine what's right for you and your family. The following options show the payment amounts you'll be eligible to receive for specific benefits.
